The examination of the employes of the Street Railway Company, who are charged with digging up city pavements without authority, was continued until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

DURING the rainy season a heavenly calm fell upon the residents of the Fourth Ward in consequence of the absence of the multitudinous hand organists, who most do congregate in that locality. They have bloomed out again, however, in great variety, ranging from the old lady with a wheezy littly organ about the six of a cigar box, to the veterans in soldier of a cigar box, to the veterans in soldier to clothes, with the overstraining, highly elaborate machine on wheels. TO THE DEMOCRATS OF OHIO COUNTY:
Your presence at the Court House at 2 o'clock this (Friday) alternoon, is earnestly requested. The managers of the "private Convention Scheme," foiled in their efforts to carry out their nefarious design of holding an assembly from which the masses of the Democratic party were to be excluded, although backed up and supported by the so-called party organ, have arranged for further efforts to defeat your will, and compass their own direputable ends. There are no compromises to be made with the shippery botters and designing repudiators, who regard neglither good faith nor honesty. As the paper which professes to be an organ of Democracy has shown itself to be under the control of those who are endeavoring to defeat the will of the majority of the Democracy for the attainment of its own selfish end, let us act ourselves and protect our own rights. Friday, May 26, 1876. TO THE DEMOCRATS OF OHIO COUNTY: Friday, May 26, 1876.

In answer to this stirring appeal, about one hundred and fifty persons assembled in the Court House in the afternoon. The meeting was called to order by Wm. H. Schambra, when Wm. C. Handlan was lected Chairman, and Joseph Paull Sec-elected Chairman, and Joseph Pauli Sec-retary.

Upon motion of Mr. S. O. Taylor, who stated that he "did not understand who had called the meeting," a committee of three were appointed to draw up resolu-tions expressive of the sense of the meet-ing in regard to Saturday's Convention, Messrs. S. O. Taylor, Judge Kennedy and B. Shanley were appointed upon the com-mittee.

Messrs. S. O. Taylor, Judge Kenneuy and B. Shanley were appointed upon the committee.

Upon motion of Mr. Good, the names of the delegates elected on Saturday were called, and they were requested to remain after the adjournment of the meeting and take some action looking to their transportation to Charleston.

The Committee on Resolutions, through Mr. Taylor, the Chairman, submitted the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the action of the Democratic Convention held here on last Saturday, be and the same is bereby in all respects ratified and confirmed; and we desire to say emphasically that each and all of the delegates chosen by that convention to both State and Congressional conventions are representative men of the party, and we can see no reason for changing them, or of adding others to the said delegation.

The Convention then adjourned, having nothing else to do.

Bliss then tried it upon his face, and finding it not sharp enough to suit him, picked up the strop and whetted it until he concluded in had sufficient edge. Walking over to the wash-basin, then, he again tried it upon his face, and finding that it out tolerably well, caught hold of his throat with his left foreinger and thumb, and with his right hand drew the razor directly across it. The barber was of course terribly frightened, and being afraid to aftempt to stop him himself, rushed to the door and called for help. A tailor near by was the first person to respond, and when he and the barber reentered the shop, Bliss was still sawing at, his throat, Other persons having heard the alarm now rushed in, and Bliss then laid down the razor, and walked to a chair and sat down, the blood spouting from the huge gash in his neck in a stream like an open hydram thysicians were summoned immediately, spouting from the huge gash in his neck in a stream like an open hydran. His father, he said, was Jacob Bliss, an iron merchant, living in Carthage, Jefferson county, New York. While he was lying upon the floor of the station, however, a young man entered in a great hurry to see him, saying that he heard that the man Bliss, with whom he came from Wheeling on Tuesday, had cut his throat. Unfortunately the man did not give his name, and when the importance of his statement was made known the man could not be found. James Loufman, a barber at No. 8 Fifth avenue, called at the Hospital and said he recognized Bliss as a man named George Graff, from Wheeling, Loufman said that the man was a barber, that they learned their trade together, and that a few days ago Graff (for Bliss) had called upon him for work. He further stated that Graffs father lives in East Wheeling, and that he keeps a bakery and confectionery. Bliss, however, failed to recognize Loufman, and, in fact insisted that his statement was altogether wrong. Bliss wrote some of his statements in German, which leads many to believe that Loufman's story is correct. The unfortunate man died at miduight Wednesday night.

SATURDAY'S MARKETING .- As many our readers will to-day lay in a Sunday supply of eatables, and as at this season o the year prices, especially of vegetables are constantly changing, we give below the result of an interview with a well known green grocer.— We found business moderately active, being about an average for the season. The general feeling of known green grocer.—We found business moderately active, being about an average for the season. The general feeling on prime grades of butter was decidedly firm, under a scant supply of those qualities, while lower grades continue sluggish and depressed. Choice rolls are held at 25c per pound, and lower grades can be bought as low as 20 cents. The market for eggs was firm and steady, strictly fresh selling at 15 cents per dozen. The supply of poultry is rather light and the market is firm. We quote live chiskens at 35 cents, and dressed at 35a40 cents each. There seems to be plenty of new cheese, which is sold for 18 and 20 cents the pound. Dried fruits are selling better than they have for some weeks, past; peaches, per quart, 15c; apples, per quart, 12c; prunes, per pound, Sa10c. New domestic honey is held at 30 cents per pound. The market for fresh fruits and vegetables was fairly active at steady quotations. Mr. Brady has both the INTELLIGENCER and Rejuste left at his residence every day, and his dog is in the habit of tearing the latter paper to pieces every morning when he finds it lying in the yard beside the former, which he carries into the house. That dog is posted. THE special committee appointed by the Board of Commissioners to consider the petition of certain citizens of Ritchie district, asking for a change in the boundary lines of Ritchie and Triadel-phia districts, met at the Court House resterday. The committee will recommend that the prayer of the petitioner be granted.

Colored Band Christines. The colored band of this city has at last found a name, and will hereafter be known as the "Bumner" band, in honor, we suppose, of the distinguished Statesman, Hon. Charles Sunner. A very good selection indeed. THE Committee on Court House and Jail of the Board of Commissioners held their asual monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the Court House, and passes upon a number of bills and closed up the business of the past year.

More Wages or Less Soar.—Yesterday the wife of a Riverside boiler found a gold dollar in a pound of soap, and was more elated than if the old man had be stowed upon her a five-dollar greenback. Last night all the Riverside boilers' wives were purchasing soap wholesale, and by this wild recklessness are squandering in a few hours the wages made by the boilers in the last month. They either want more wages or less soap if the want more wages or less soap if the domestic pot is to be kept boiling. Look out for another strike.

OFFICE FOR JUDGE MELVIN .- The jur OFFICE FOR JUDGE MELVIN.—The jury room in the northwest corner of the Court House will hereafter be occupied by Judge Melvin, of the Circuit Court, as an office. The County Court has heretofore met in this room, and the rostrum will be removed to the room adjoining, which will be occupied by Judge Cochran. Judge Melvin's fibrary will be removed to his office in a day or two. RATHER DULL,-During the week ending yesterday, not a single deed in fee was admitted to record at the office of the Clerk of the County Court. Four deeds of trust were admitted, and five marriage licenses were Issued during the time men-

WESLEY ANNIVERSARY.—Anniversary exercises will be held at the Wesley M. E. Sabbath school to morrow, when addresses will be made by Dr. Logan, Hon. C. D. Hubbard and others, and in the evening the pastor, Rev. W. M. West, will deliver a Sunday school sermon. TRAVELERS on the Baltimore & Ohio RAYMLESS on the Battimbre & Oben In the habit of buying pies from the boys at Harper's Ferry, will be pleased to learn that the huckle-berry crop will be unusually large this year.

NEW HULL FOR THE REES .- We un-NEW HULL FOR THE SEER.—We understand that the owners of the steamer James Rees are having a new hall built for her at Pittsburgh. The machinery now on the Rees will be used on the new best.

COLORED SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Co pupils of the public schools will take an excursion to Lockwood's Grove on the second Thursday in June, and spend the day in the woods. The colored brass band has been engaged to accompany them.

One of the features of the picnic of the Brown boat club on Saturday next will be a grand regatta on the "back river." Wz despise sponges, that is
